Legionnaires' disease claims second victim

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

Joseph Baker of Inkster died at 10:17 Monday night, the second fatality linked to an outbreak of Legionnaires' disease reportedly spread during a testimonial dinner for Rev. Isaac King of Inkster on April 27 at the Hilton Airport Inn in Romulus.

A 58-year-old Romulus woman remained in extremely critical condition Tuesday at Westland Medical Center with kidney failure thought to have been brought on by the pneumonia-like Legionnaires' disease. The disease has not been confirmed in her case, county officials said.

According to Dave Fredo, a spokesperson at University Hospital in Ann Arbor, Baker's doctors are unsure that Legionnaires' disease caused death, although he had been confirmed of having the disease.

"He came in with gangrene and complications set in, such as kidney, lung and liver failure. An autopsy will determine the exact cause of death," Fredo said.

Wayne County health officials have confirmed six cases of Legionnaires' disease among those that attended the testimonial dinner for Rev. King, and said eight others are suspected of having the disease. In addition, 30 people have exhibited some symptoms of Legionnaires' disease, and 81 others that attended the banquet have reported illnesses that are unrelated to the disease.

ses that are unrelated to the disease.

A total of 44 possible cases have been noted, but test results have not arrived, county health officials said Friday. As many as 10 were hospitalized.

Tests of bacteria taken from the hotel's air conditioning units have come back positive, indicating that the disease may have been transmitted to hotel guests in the banquet hall, which was served by the unit containing the bacteria.

The epidemic earlier claimed the life of Bishop Green D. Moore, pastor of the Greater Northwest Church of God in Christ. Moore, 76, had attended the banquet which honored his nephew, and later collapsed during a sermon at his Detroit church. He died May 18 at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

Inkster police detective Charles Givens, 42, had also been confirmed as a Legionnaires' victim, but early treatment kept the disease from becoming a life-threatening situation. Givens was released last week from Annapolis Hospital in Wayne, but is unsure when he will be able to return to work.

Dr. Donald Lawrenchuk, Wayne County Health Director has stated that the facilities at the Airport Hilton have been disinfected and should pose no risk to anyone staying there. A spokesperson for the hotel said Tuesday that "everything is running as normal here. That's really the only statement we are making at this time."

Concert aids needy kids

It was a success! The Sunday benefit concert put on by Romulus students to gather money to help feed the starving children in Africa brought in over 400 residents from Romulus and surrounding communities for a show of fun and dancing, tears and understanding. "The kids really wanted to do this, and they all just pulled together to make it succeed. Everyone from the elementary school level to senior high school students, they were wonderful," said Gwen Sibert, who coordinated the show with the added help of the Romulus R.O.T.C. Next Tuesday at 9 a.m., on Sibert's television show, "The Healthy Cook" (featured as part of channel 62's Morning Magazine), Sibert will give the check for money collected to Ed DeWitt of the American Red Cross. Channel 62 also taped the show for possible future viewing. According to Sibert, the most touching moments of the show came when three youngsters from Halecreek Elementary School each read an essay on the starving children in Africa. "There were tears everywhere," Sibert said. Nearly $5,000 was raised, but Sibert says "I was hoping to raise $25,000, so I guess I'll just have to keep on trying!"

On the whole, though, the general consensus was that "We Care About Others" was a huge success. "The kids learned that yes, they can make a difference, and that is something I hope they'll remember for the rest of their lives," Sibert said. Pictured are (top) Robert Young of the breakdancing "Bad Boys," and reading their touching essays on the starving youth in Africa are (left) Tara O'Daniel and LeShon Holmes (right).

Tot, 4, killed by fall

A four-year-old Wayne child was killed in Romulus last week in a tragic traffic mishap that police say could have been prevented by the wearing of seatbelts.

At approximately 10:35 a.m. Wednesday morning, Linda Thompson was headed south on Inkster Road near Newcastle with her two young children. Jason, 4, was the oldest, and he was sitting by the passenger door next to his baby brother.

Tragically, the door somehow opened and, according to the police report, Jason fell from the moving vehicle and violently hit the asphalt and rolled. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at Heritage Hospital in Taylor.

According to Romulus Detective Sam Chalton, it isn't known if the child accidentally opened the door himself or not. "One thing to remember here, is that the child was not wearing a seat belt, which probably would have avoided this tragedy."

Crash kills 1

Westland police officers are continuing their investigation of a three-car accident Friday afternoon that claimed the life of a 55-year-old Romulus woman.

According to Police Officer Gary Meldrum, a car driven by an 18-year-old Westland man pulled out of the Clark Gas Station at 542 N. Wayne Road, striking the car driven by Ethel Williams of Wayne. Her mother, Juanita Williams, 55, of Romulus was thrown from the car and landed in the southbound lanes of the thoroughfare, where she was hit by second car and fatally injured. She was dead on arrival at Westland Medical Center.

Mrs. Williams' daughter suffered upper body trauma and head injuries in the accident and is reported in stable condition at Westland Medical Center. A second passenger in the car, Mrs. Williams mother, Ethel Lamar, 79, of Romulus, was not injured in the accident.

Fireworks erupt over ordinance officer post

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

A heated discussion erupted at last Wednesday's meeting of the Huron Township Board of Trustees, and once again the controversy centered on the police department.

After a lengthy discussion on the hiring of an ordinance officer, and where that person should be chosen from, a motion passed 4-3 in favor of naming police sergeant John Cady to the position.

At first, board members were told that Cady's contract as ordinance officer would be a "straight $8 an hour job," but when Treasurer Christine Gamber asked the city attorney if that would be possible, he responded that "under any term or job heading you call it, anything over 40 hours work must be paid time-and-a-half wages, because of the Fair Labor Act."

Board members showed concerns over anyone's ability to balance the two jobs without going into overtime, but Supervisor Ralph Dugan said "please, just go along with me on this one. They (police officers) get overtime anyways for court time. If this doesn't work out, I'll be the one caught with my pants down."

Clerk Vicki Lyons question of "how much extra overtime would that give Mr. Cady?" went unanswered, with trustee Gary Bates calling for a vote.

Cady, along with Harold Ashby, were promoted to sergeants in board member Fred Ashby's first move after being named police commissioner last month. Fred and Harold Ashby are brothers.

According to Gamber, there is money allocated for an ordinance officer, who was to be hired for $8 per hour. "But now, with Cady, anything over his 40 hours will cost us $18 an hour, since he was recently promoted to $12 per hour. That money will be eaten up very fast at $18 an hour."

Officials discuss post office's 'slow progress'

Mayor Beverly McAnally, Community Relations Director Dennis Davidson and other members of the current administration met last week with representatives from Congressman Bill Ford's office and U.S. Postal Authorities to discuss what was termed "slow progress" in the construction of a new post office on a site off of Goddard Road which once held the old foundry.

Construction began on the new building on Oct. 1, 1984, city administrators say, and was to have been completed by November of that same year. As of this week, Davidson says, only the outer structure has been completed by Joseph Leo, the landowner and constructor.

At the last council meeting, some members voiced concerns about the lack of production so far. Councilman Alan Lambert commented that he had seen children playing in the building, saying "that has to be dangerous and should be discouraged, but as long as it remains the way it is, it will unfortunately be like an open invitation to kids to play there."

McAnally said later that she had been in contact with Ford, "and he was just livid about this mess."

It was Ford who pushed state and national authorities to have the new facility named after Romulus' late Carl Morris, which was approved. "This is embarrassing to me, to the city as a whole, but most of all I feel sorry for the Morris family," McAnally said, adding that "they - and Carl's memory - deserve much better than this."

Morris was a long-time community leader who donated vast amounts of time to better the city and, particularly, the Romulus education system.

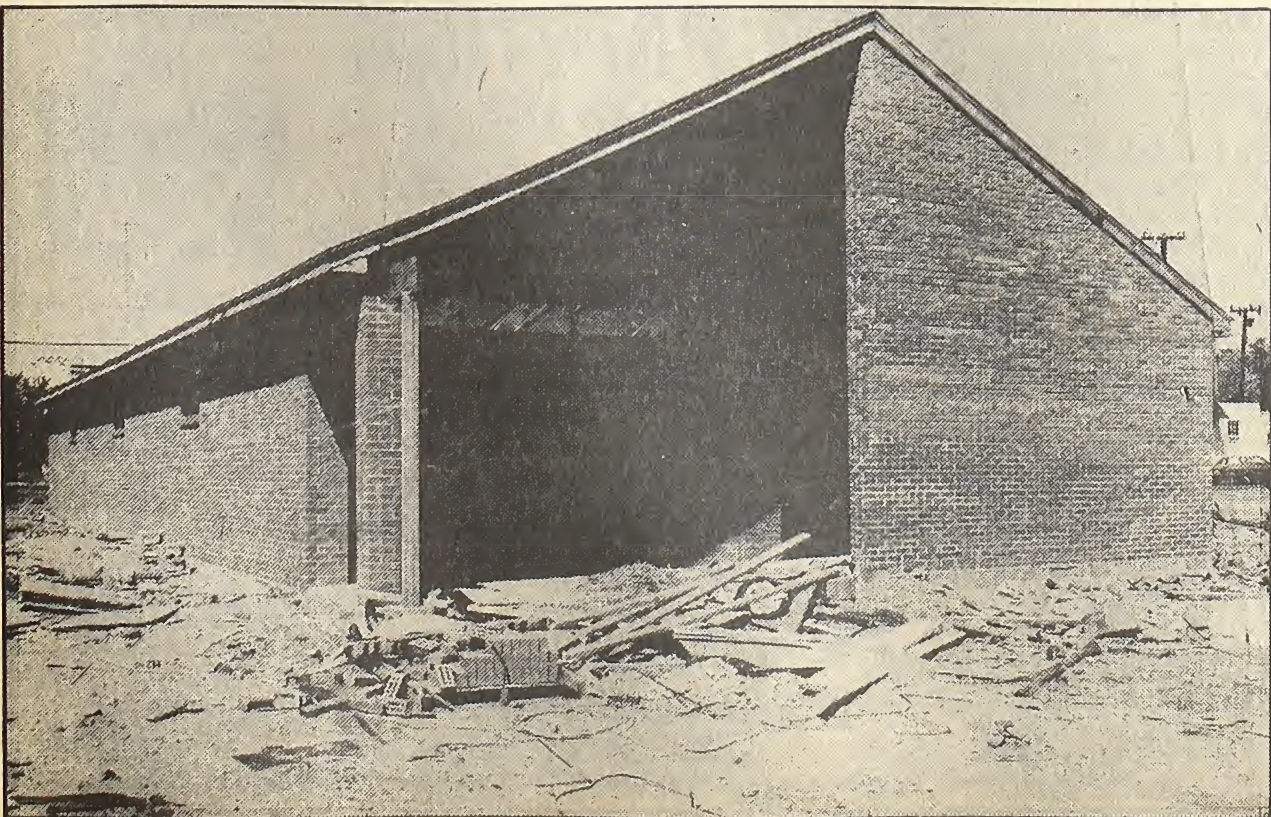

According to a city release,

ANP photos by Chief Photographer Lothar E. Konietzko

the outcome of the meeting was that Congressman Ford's office and the postal authority will put pressure on Leo to complete the project as soon as possible. In addition, the city will be making daily progress reports to U.S. Postmaster Gene Cole.

dan's dogs

by dan a. morris

Editor's Note: Dan Morris has been a professional dog trainer for more than 20 years and has worked in all phases of dog training. If you have a specific problem, his advice is available by writing to him in care of Associated Newspapers, Inc., P.O. Box 578, Wayne, Michigan, 48184. He will reply in this column.

Dogs have been used by man dating back as early as prehistoric times. The main reason for dog usage was to warn prehistoric man of impending danger. The dog's reward was a simple means of scrap left from the daily meal.

During the Greek and Roman era, the dog played another important role - defense. The Romans, dressed in armor and mounted upon their horses, were truly formidable. The Greeks, however, dressed their dogs with sharply spiked collars. Their dogs were trained to ambush the Romans as they rode by, charging the horse, brushing against it with the collar, causing the horse to rear up. The rider would be thrown from his horse and hand-to-hand combat would ensue.

In the 18th Century, at the wall of Alexandra, Napoleon used dogs for his first line of defense. The dogs were staked around his fort, alerting the sentry of intruders.

The use of dogs for defense declined because of the invention of gun powder. However, man still discovered the flexibility of the dog and the importance of its usage, as a messenger dog, sled dog, first aid dog or patrol dog. The amazing thing about the dog throughout the centuries is that it has been loyal and courageous during war time.

The following is a true story which took place in Viet Nam and was passed on to me by my brother:

While on patrol in the war zone of Viet Nam, a group of men were assigned to find a safe route for additional men to use. At the front look-out point, there was a patrol dog who recently had been transferred to a "green" handler. While patrolling, the dog froze and failed to go any further.

The handler, scared and lacking experience, felt the dog was disobedient and tried to force the dog to continue. In the process of wrestling with his dog, the handler inadvertently tripped the boobytrap wire. When the dog heard the snap of the wire, he laid on the mine, killing himself, but saving the lives of the handler and my brother, who was fifth in line.

Nemo, an Air

Force dog was on patrol in the pre-dawn hours of December 1966, at Tan Son Nhut Air Base, when he alerted his handler of a Viet Cong commando raid. During this raid, Nemo lost one eye protecting his handler. This early detection alerted the base of an attack, and saved thousands of lives as well as equipment. It was estimated that the dollar savings, by this one dog's alertness, was equivalent to the entire investment in the K-9 program from its start.

ing point in 1942. What causes dogs to react with such heroism? Personally, I think it is but one thing - a gift from God.

Romulus High stages 'Up Down Staircase'

Romulus High School students will perform "Up the Down Staircase" at 8 p.m. June 1 and 3 in the school auditorium.

Directed by Debbie Snider and Pat Parker, this play is set in an overcrowded and understaffed fictional high school in New York City. Problems at the school deal with both hilarious and heartbreaking situations, including dialogue that remains relevant to school life today.

Among the featured performers are Jason Nesler, cast as the hostile and handsome Joe Ferone; Sharon Wilcox, the overly sensitive Alice Blake, and Peter Johnson, who plays Harry Kagan in the production.

Other stars include Kim Bolter, Antoine Bosley, Denise Berlin, Gordon Evans, Richard Zavodsky, Renee Brantly, Dawn Neal, Jackie Pearce and Dawn Sergott.

Tickets are priced at $2 for adults and $1 for students and senior citizens and are available at the high school.

For more information, call 941-1592.

Is Dugan willing and able?

Huron Township Supervisor Ralph Dugan, who soundly beat incumbent A.J. Haener in the election last year, has been having more than his share of troubles since he took office. And things are not getting any better, either for him or the township.

Never have we seen a Huron board as openly divided and personally vindictive as the one presently in office. Sarcastic exchanges among some board members have become the norm, not the exception, and Dugan has let the situation fester, at times even helping to fan the fires of discord himself. For example, the supervisor publicly addresses some board members by their first name but Treasurer Christine Gamber is addressed as "Miss Gamber."

In addition, Dugan has had difficulty remembering proper parliamentary procedures while conducting public meetings, having to be openly corrected by board members—including newly elected ones—numerous times at most board sessions. This problem, which would not be uncommon for anyone at first, has not been helped by experience. The situation, in fact, has gotten worse.

There is no excuse for a supervisor to allow a board member, upon request, to vote last on an issue when that issue happens to be that board member's own appointment, as happened when Fred Ashby was named police commissioner. Ashby cast the deciding vote for his own appointment, which was approved by a 4-3 margin.

Some board members and residents have expressed doubts to Associated Newspapers regarding Dugan's ability to run the township. Meetings, which in the past have regularly been standing room only affairs, hit a new low in attendance last Wednesday, when only four residents attended. Any trend towards apathy on the part of Huron residents hopefully won't continue; their aggressiveness and vitality not only helped "keep the board in line," but showed an interest in their community that is far too uncommon these days.

As for Dugan, he does not appear to enjoy his job, and as the board conflicts have become more and more pronounced, he often sits in the chairman's seat with his head held in his hands and face down.

Of course being supervisor of an oft-troubled community, with its police, sewer and landfill problems, is not any easy job. When problems are raised, however, Dugan often hides behind the response "that was done before I was in office." Passing the proverbial buck is no way to solve problems. All it does is directly insult board members who have served on the board in past years, as all but two of the seven have.

The fact that some board members have admitted to meeting with Dugan prior to public meetings to discuss the issues and their votes (which was denied by Dugan) reveals an artificial and possibly unethical way out of tough situations. If such actually is the case, then the meetings are nothing but shams.

Board members must vote according to their consciences and not their affiliations, as they have in the last few months, and it is Dugan's responsibility to provide the leadership.

The future of this friendly community also rests with the the performance of other members of the board and the interest level of the local residents. The ball, as they say, is in their court.

A Friend Called Dennis

In the business world, you meet a lot of people. Some are interesting, some are boring. You develop acquaintances with some with whom you occasionally chat. With others, you talk, and share information, thoughts and ideas. With a select few, you share intimate thoughts, frustrations, goals and aspirations. These latter few are the people you not only like, but trust, admire and respect as well. We call them friends.

Often, they are individuals who work for the same company as yourself. As each of you seeks to find the "life niche" which seems right, your paths can lead in separate directions, there is a sadness. For you know that despite your joint resolve to "stay in touch," your friendship will not and cannot ever be the same. Each tells the other that they will communicate often, but that rarely happens.

You will, however, remember the good times, the struggles you shared, the soul-searching dialogues in which you so often engaged. As the years pass, you will reflect on the lessons you learned together and from one another. Perhaps your paths will cross again one day. Probably they will not with the exception of a rare social encounter. Because you have known each other, however, both of you have become more than you were.

I find myself, this week, losing such a friend.

Dennis Niemiec has been a part of the Associated Newspapers family for the past five years. For more than a year now, he has served as managing editor of our six community publications.

Dennis has consistently demonstrated himself to be a bright, articulate, caring man who is certain to have a career of substance. When a man has the ability, wit, and drive of Niemiec, it should not be an earth-shaking surprise when his decision to accept an irresistible career opportunity is announced. Yet, I was caught off guard when Dennis telephoned me to say that the Flint Journal had offered him an opportunity too good to resist.

At the end of this week, Dennis will depart from his position at Associated. I have already begun to experience a sense of loss of the type reserved for those to whom you have felt particularly close. I am not alone in that remorse. In the relatively brief time Dennis has been with us, he has left his mark on our staff, on our readers, on our company and on the communities we serve.

It is understandable that Dennis has a desire to find out for himself what daily newspapers are all about, something he has not yet experienced in his career. There was a time when I harbored the same yearning, which resulted in my leaving Associated for a seven-year tenure with The Detroit Free Press.

Although I feel a great sadness at our loss of Dennis, I am pleased that he has found an opportunity to pursue something he yearns

Clean living

To the Editor:

On Saturday morning (May 18) volunteers from our city met behind Wayne City Hall at 10 a.m. to participate in the downtown cleanup campaign. This campaign was held in conjunction with Mayors Exchange Day on Monday, May 20, which kicked off "Michigan Week."

As I was the chairman of this event I would be remiss in not expressing my pleasure at the fine and enthusiastic turnout by all the volunteers. Citizens, children, city officials and city employees were all represented and within two hours had collected enough trash to fill a DPW truck.

Special thanks go to the Beautification Committee and Chairperson Delphine Marshall for not only helping pick up trash but for donating boxes of candy as a treat. Another notable contribution was from the Dennis Wayne Corporation, which donated free passes to the State Wayne Theatre as a reward.

Our Department of Public Works showed their colors by cutting the grass around town and by using our new street sweeper all through this week. Thanks go to Jim Law, Frank Boner, and all the personnel at the Department of Public Works.

The pride we have for our city was evident as Wayne was looking good. I was especially pleased as I toured the city on Sunday and saw that so much had been done. Our business people really pitched in and spruced up all around their establishments. I even saw a man cutting grass in the Michigan Avenue median on Sunday afternoon.

"Wayne - A Clean Place to Live" - Let's keep it that way.

Preferred candidates

To the Editor:

I have received from the Wayne-Westland Senior Adult Clubs a leaflet which recommends three persons for election to the Wayne-Westland School Board.

There are two items worthy of note in that message.

1. Of the 13 club officers who signed the recommendation, only five are residents of the school district and therefore qualified to vote their choice in the election.

2. One of the recommended candidates, Rex Wilholte, although a resident of the district for a number of years, has never taken the time or trouble to vote in a Wayne-Westland School election.

In view of his previous lack of interest, can he really be considered as a preferred candidate?

A big loss

To the Editor:

The family of Sgt. Michael Terpevich wishes to extend appreciation to the many people of Romulus and its officials who paid their respects and sympathies in the loss of a dear brother.

He had served for 12 years as a Sheriff's Deputy, then from its inception, the Romulus Police Dept., until his untimely death on April 25. Michael was truly a loyal and dedicated servant.

Thanks, also, to Steve O'Leary and the Romulus Roman for their report.

"What's so good about good-bye?" went the refrain from a rock song of another era. As I prepare to leave The Associated Newspapers this week for another assignment in Flint, those few words come to mind. Is there anything good about good-bye? I believe so.

The value of personal and professional growth can not be minimized in terms of its impact on one's psyche. Such development is often unpleasant, especially when it means one must put more distance between family, friends and pleasant surroundings. But the alternative may be akin to burying talents, a fate that makes a proper good-bye seem good indeed.

Serving as managing editor of a community newspaper chain certainly has its rewards. One gets a bird's eye view of life in various communities...the achievements, the problems and most importantly, the people.

For what it's worth, here are some impressions of Western Wayne County suburbs: • WESTLAND-When will the potential here be realized? This city has more than 80,000 residents, plenty of room for industrial and commercial growth, a once-proud school system and a negative reputation.

What's the problem? Lack of cooperation, communication and common sense, for starters. At times it appears that the sequel to "King Kong versus Godzilla" is "The Mayor versus City Council". The antics of elected public officials are as scary as a horror flick but costly to the taxpayers too. It appears that the only persons being served are the lawyers who collect the fees as the leaders exchange charges and counter-charges.

• WAYNE-From an administrative standpoint, this municipality is in good hands. City Manager Tom Daily has assembled one of the most competent staffs in the state and the city council lets the professionals handle day-to-day operations without political interference. A new city hall and district courthouse would make "it's great to live in Wayne" even more appropriate.

• WAYNE-WESTLAND-The school system which serves these two communities is slipping and the antagonism on the board of education does nothing to help the situation. All the resources needed to provide quality education for students exists but someone must put the fiscal house in order. And soon.

• ROMULUS-Say Yes to Romulus? Apparently more and more developers are doing just that. Credit Mayor Beverly McAnally with bringing a new spirit to city hall and convincing others that Romulus is a great location for a business due to its proximity to the airport and expressways.

Residents have done their part by approving additional millage for their schools, the heart of any community. Now if only the teachers and administration could work out a contract...

500 new picnic tables bought

Wayne County Commissioners have approved the purchase of 500 new picnic tables for use in selected areas, mainly in Hines and Elizabeth Parks.

The heavy duty tables, which cost nearly $50,000, are constructed of thick pine planks on a galvanized steel frame that will be more difficult to vandalize, according to Commissioner Milton Mack of Wayne.

Approximately 2,000 new tables are needed throughout the parks system, Mack said.

"This is a start which I am sure will be very much appreciated along with the repair and renovation of others that have reached the dangerous stage," Mack added.

In other areas of park upgrading, Mack reported that the ball fields are being restored and most of the comfort stations are in operation.

Parks Director Eric Reickel is seeking state and federal funds to provide security guards for the comfort stations and secure winter storage for the picnic tables, Mack pointed out.

ways welcomed and so appreciated.

A very special thanks to Robert Carlson, Alecia Pitt, Don Lucas, Boy Scout Troop #711. Mr. Carlson's pony rides were enjoyed by all the children. Mrs. Pitt organized the face painting; we had anything from snakes to rainbows walking the halls. Don Lucas made a generous contribution to the kitchen area. The Scouts were available to help out where needed.

Without the help of so many wonderful people who really care about their school; teachers, parents, sisters, brothers, boy scouts, girl scouts, and friends, we could not have had such an evening of fun and enjoyment for all.

with standing up to the problem and letting everyone know that crime won't be tolerated any longer.

• CANTON-A township at the crossroads. Leaders in surrounding communities talk about the instability of the township's leaders, which may or may not be accurate. Again, here's a place with unlimited potential and with the advantage of having both urban and rural resources.

Hailed as the fastest growing area in the country between the 1970 and 1980 census periods, Canton can be compared to the teenager who grew up just a bit too fast. Now its time to recover from such awkward growth and capitalize on all those resources.

Of course the future of a Canton or a Romulus or a Flint rests with its people. And ultimately it will be the people who determine the standard of living in their community. Will their dreams be realized? The answer, in my opinion, can be found in the poem "Chart Your Course," which concludes: "Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man, But soon or late the man who wins is the man who thinks he can." Farewell.

much to encounter. His leaving will create a void, and yet it also offers an opportunity for others to change duties and to learn, just as Dennis hungers to gain knowledge of his profession.

I will not forget Dennis, for I have learned a great deal from him, as I hope he has from me. His wife, Kerry, and his young sons, Matthew and Jeffrey, are fortunate to have such a champion as he is as husband and father.

We will all miss you Dennis. We will miss your quick smile, your dogged determination, your warmth, your perception, and your optimism. We will miss, too, your fine mind and your quick grasp of situations, but perhaps most of all, your gentle and omnipresent wit and unflagging humor.

State resumes summer Youth Corps program

This summer, 15,000 young adults will have a chance to work and gain in valuable job experience through the 1985 Michigan Youth Corps, according to Gov. James J. Blanchard.

"Our Youth Corps - the largest and most successful summer jobs programs in the nation - has a proven track record," the Governor said. "It has provided more than 45,000 summer jobs to young men and women the past two summers and exemplifies in Michigan's future. Lawmakers are again showing their commitment to our young adults by moving swiftly on legislation to establish a third year of the jobs program.

Youth Corps applications were available beginning May 20 at all Michigan Employment (MES) Job Service offices and Michigan Department of Social Services (DDS) offices, as well as universities, colleges, vocational schools, high schools and Service Delivery Agencies.

The Youth Corps program was proposed by Gov. Blanchard and approved by the legislature in 1983 to deal with the growing problem of high youth unemployment. This summer's program will provide jobs for 15,000 youth, pending final legislative approval.

The program is open to unemployed Michigan residents 18 to 21 years old. They will work in state parks and recreation areas, along rivers, lakes and highways, at state fairgrounds and in schools and hospitals. The jobs are provided by local community agencies and the State Department of Agriculture, Education, Labor, Natural Resources and Transportation.

"Whether they are planting gardens for senior citizens or picking up trash along a busy freeway, our young adults will be helping to rebuild and beautify Michigan," the Governor said. "While performing a valuable service to their state, they also will be building work record and experience so vital to their own employment futures.

"The Youth Corps offers opportunity and hope to young people who are willing to work. It's truly more than a summer job."

Youth Corps Director Tim Ervin said the state is intensifying its efforts to reach needy young people with the information.

All applications will be handled and processed by MES, which handles all job referrals. More than 3,590 jobs will be available to eligible youth in Wayne County.

Cherry Hill wins Tri-River League title for 14th straight year

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Piling up 40 points more than their nearest rival and capturing seven out of a possible 15 events, defending champ, Cherry Hill retained the Tri-River Conference Track & Field Championships for an unprecedented and incredulous 14th consecutive time.

Coach Dick Gordon's Spartans went into the meet championships sporting an untarnished 6-0 record and favored to win. They didn't disappoint the prognosticators. Pleased with the over-all as well as with individual performances, Gordon said there were several reasons why he wanted to win this year's title.

"As everyone knows the school district has been merged with the Wayne-Westland school district and we dedicated this season to the Cherry Hill Board of Education and to superintendent of schools Bill Harvey. These people really have given our program a lot of support over the years," said Gordon, "and I personally, and the team as a whole, have appreciated what they have done for all of us." Cherry Hill will field its last track & field team next year, then in the 1987 season the Spartans will join the ranks of Westland John Glenn and Wayne Memorial.

But, before he leaves the track scene, you can bet that Michael Brown will have a score of records. Brown, who is a junior, picked up a pair of gold medals for his efforts in the sprints and also helped the Spartans' 880-yard and 440-yard relays capture first places.

Brown was clocked with the winning time of 10.2 in the 100-yard dash and he came back with a 23.1 for his winning performance in the 220. He also anchored the 440-relay, joining Donnie Watson, Curtis Adams, Zarick Duran on the winner's dais. The winning time was 45.6. The 880-yard relay was made up of Watson, Duran and Brown who were clocked in 1:35.2.

Cherry Hill's Eric Truss didn't allow a knee injury prevent him from picking up three gold medals as he breezed to victory in the low hurdles (40.9) and leaped 20 feet, 4 inches to take the long jump and also anchored the mile relay to a win, combining with Quinn Lawrence, Bryon Hendricks, See SPARTANS Page 2-B

They are best in Tri-River

Keeping in step with the boys, Cherry Hill's girls track team also emerged from the 1985 campaign with the Tri-River Conference title. It was a first for Coach Jess Shough who took over the Spartans from veteran coach Joe Grasley. Grasley has moved over to Westland John Glenn where he has helped Coach Ernie Righetti claim both the boys and girls' Northwest Suburban Conference titles. Stories are on Page 3-B.

Glenn wins Northwest title

Westland John Glenn parlayed its 'team depth' and some outstanding efforts from individuals to capture the 1985 Northwest Suburban Conference track & field championships.

The Westlanders, beaten by North Farmington during the dual meet season, needed to finish ahead of the Hawks to assure itself of the league title.

It had no difficulty reaching its goal. In fact, North fell to third after Redford Township Thurston came up with some superlative efforts in the stretch.

ANP Staff Writer

Although they managed to win only two events, Cherry Hill's over-all team strength provided the key to winning the 1985 Tri-River Conference Track & Field Championships.

Injury-plagued, the five-time defending champs managed to survive a serious threat from host, Southgate Anderson, who trailed the Spartans by 13 points in the final standings. Cherry Hill garnered 110 points, while Anderson had 97.

It was the fifth consecutive time the Spartans had emerged from the track battles with the title, but it was the first time they were led by coach Jeff Shough, who took command of the team a year ago from Joe Grasley. Grasley moved over to Westland John Glenn as an assistant coach.

"When you consider that we had a score of injuries to key performers," said Shough, "I feel fortunate that we won this. You got to give a lot of credit to these girls. They just stood in there and were determined to win."

One of those key performers who refused to let her injury sideline her for the big meet is Janice Koczyk who postponed a scheduled knee surgery to take part in the championships. Janice scored 13 points and, without her in the Spartan line-up, it is obvious that the team was in jeopardy of losing the title. Her effort was the difference between second and the championship.

Koczyk cashed in on her performance in the shot put for one of the team's two gold medals, the team's only individual event winner. She captured the league crown in the shot put.

The Spartans also won the 880-yard relay league title with a line-up that included Andrea Rose, Terri Crockett, Michelle Stevens, and Francetta Saxton. The winning time was posted as 1:56.3.

The Spartan injury list also included Yolanda Brown, Melissa Smiley, and Rachele Ireland, but they also competed.

Brown came up with her fastest time of the year and finished second in the 100-yard dash. She was clocked in 12.3. She was third in the 220-yard dash in 28.5. Smiley had the third best time in the 100, running with an ankle injury, while Ireland who also had a leg injury managed to finish fourth in the grueling 2-mile run.

Other Cherry Hill medal winners included Jamie Sheahan, who was runner-up in the 110-low hurdles (17.3). She was tied for third in the high jump with a leap of 4 feet, 6 inches. Also second was the Spartans' 440-yard relay team of Rose, Crockett, Stevens and Brown who were clocked in 54.8.

The Spartans also received a silver-medal winning performance from their 2-mile relay team of Ireland, Lisa Franc-kowiak, Angela Farley and Francetta Saxton who were clocked in 11:35. Third place medals went to Smiley, in the 100-yard dash; Koczyk, in the discus (76 feet, 8); Brown, in the 220-yard dash (28.5); and Sheahan, in the high jump (4 feet, 6).

Cherry Hill ended the 1985 Tri-River Conference dual meet phase of the season with a perfect 6-0 record, while the Spartans enjoyed a 7-2 over-all record.

Yandura stuns Lincoln Park

Romulus advances to district playoffs

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

A superb pitching performance by Tony Yandura and a 4-run fifth inning lifted Romulus to a 4-0 victory over district favorite, Lincoln Park, in the pre-district match-up last week. The victory will enable Coach Dennis Stoh's Eagles to advance to the Class A district tournament on Saturday at Wyandotte Memorial Field.

Romulus will take on the winner of the Taylor Truman-

Carlson game in the semi-final round of the district championship scheduled for 12:30 p.m. The winner will return to the field at 3 p.m. to play for the championship and the right to compete at the Class A regional.

"This was indeed a big victory for us," said Stoh whose Eagles have never previously beaten a Tom Nolan coached club. "They have a fine tradition of baseball down there and to come away with a victory is almost incredible."

Stoh said that his team "put it all together" for this one. "We are a fine ball hitting team, and I felt that if our defense stood up and the pitching came through we would be all right. And that's what happened."

It was a pitcher's duel until the top of the sixth inning when Romulus erupted for four runs.

Yandura was near-perfect as he struck out 10, didn't allow a Lincoln Park base runner to reach first via a walk and gave up four hits. The loser was Jim

In that inning Steve Malgay ignited the rally with a triple to right center, then Dave Bergman came through with a run-scoring single, driving the ball to left. Dave Blevins then rapped into a fielder's choice and Steve Thornberry kept things going with a single, putting runners on first and third. Singles by Don Shultz and Terry MacIntosh produced one run, bringing to the plate Sean Vernatt who slashed a double to score what proved to be the final run of the game.

MacIntosh was erased at the plate on a fielder's choice and Bob Sloan's fly ball ended the inning.

Sloan, Bergman, Shultz and Malgay each had two hits, while Malgay's triple was the only one going for extra bases.

Romulus captures Metro-West track

Scoring 96 points and claiming nine out of a possible 15 events, Romulus High captured the 1985 version of the Metro-West Conference Track & Field Championships.

"We received some outstanding performances from individuals and our 440 and 880 relay teams came out as winners," said Romulus Coach Al Wilkerson. "In all, it was an excellent day for us."

Romulus edged out Oak Park, which had 74 points, for the title. Taylor Truman finished third with 21 points while Taylor Center finished fourth.

Richard Neely picked up four gold medals as he won the 100-meter dash in 10.9 and also registered a victory in the 200-meters, crossing the finishing line in 22.7. Neely also anchored the winning 440 and 880 relays.

Those relays were made up of Orlando Young, Frank McCurdy, Bill Campbell and Neely. They were clocked in 44.5. In the 880, Luther Shannon, McCurdy, Campbell and Neely was the winning combination.

Bill Johnson cleared 6 feet, 3 inches to capture the gold in the high jump and Stacy Wilson's leap of 21 feet, 3 inches gave the Eagles' a victory in the long jump.

Romulus also dominated the hurdles' events thanks to the efforts of Jason Williams and Vincent Morris who were clocked in 15.5 and 40.7 for the highs and lows, respectively. Al Cranford ran a 2:05.4 for the best time recorded for the 880.

"We lose only three seniors off of this team," Wilkerson pointed out, "which means that we will be even better a year from now."

Romulus piled up a 7-1 overall record on the season, losing only to Ypsilanti Lincoln in the opening meet of the 1985 campaign.

In the Metro-West track & field championships for girls, Romulus had a double gold-winner in MaShawn Robinson who won the 100 and 220 events.

Romulus will join a host of area qualifiers on Saturday at Flint Northwestern to compete for the Class A state championships. Leading the Eagles will be Neely and Campbell.

Track dynasty

Cherry Hill continued its monopoly of the Tri-River Conference track & field championships last week as Coach Richard Gordon's Spartans successfully defended their league title for the 14th consecutive year. That monopoly will obviously end at the culmination of the 1986 campaign when the school school district will merge with the Wayne Westland schools. One of Gordon's objectives is to extend the title streak to 15 and bring the curtains down on an incredible success story.

Bubba Zirka for a 3:33.7 and the gold.

Gordon commented that his team may have lost some battles this year "but we never lost the war."

"I'm proud of these kids and the way they worked all year long," Gordon said, after directing his eighth Spartan campaign as head coach.

Cherry Hill also received some silver-winning performances from members of their team. Mike Johnson placed second in the discus with a toss of 127 feet, 9 1/2 inches and the 2-mile relay team with a lineup of Quinn Lawrence, David Yao, Wayne Stephens and Bubba Zirka ran second to Southgate. Southgate posted an 8:26.8, while the Spartans' time was 8:30.0.

Other Spartan medalists included Lawrence who finished third in the 440-yard dash (52.4); Tony Bleau, who was third in the pole vault with a 10 feet effort and Johnson, who was third in the shot put with a toss of 43 feet, 5 inches.

Other third place finishers included Watson, in the 100-yard dash (10.6); David Yao, in the 2-mile run (10:44); Zirker, in the half-mile (2:10.0); and Duran, in the 220-yard dash (24.5).

Rockets fall to Harrison in pre-district's

By Keith A. DeMolay
ANP Special Writer

Give Farmington Harrison an inch and they will take a mile.

That's exactly what the Hawks did Friday afternoon to Westland John Glenn as soph righthander Mike Inch limited the Rockets to only four hits and his teammates stretched (or should they be inched) out four runs for a 4-1 victory in the pre-district confrontation between these two non-conference foes.

The victory for Harrison moved them into the district competition on Saturday at Walled Lake Western, but the loss for the Westlanders meant the end of a season that saw them win 16 of 25 games and finish second in their Northwest Suburban League campaign.

"We knew they had some real fine athletes," said Coach Norm Hoenes who brought the curtains down on his 20th season as Glenn's head coach. "We tried to defense their speed but they took advantage of our mistakes. We didn't play real sharp, though. Steve did a heck of a job keeping us in the game."

Neither Inch nor Rocket hurler Steve Irwin gave their opponents anything, especially for the first two innings. Both teams put runners on base, but Inch and Irwin each posted a strikeout to nip the budding rally.

In the Farmington second, the Hawks put runners on second and third with two out. Irwin reached back for something extra and fanned Vince Enright. As the Rockets came off the field, a plane slowly circled the field towing a banner with the words, "Go Get 'Em Rockets." Shortstop Cass Simpson looked up and let out a yell and the Rockets went to work.

Chuck Hammontree led off the third with a walk. Bill Barber struck out, the ball however skipped past the catcher. Al Colovas retrieved the ball, Barber sped to first. Colovas heaved the ball to first in an effort to complete the strikeout, but in his haste, he hit Barber and the ball kept on going down the right field line. Hammontree came around to score and Glenn had a 1-0 lead.

Meanwhile, Irwin kept the Hawks at bay, tried to add some insurance runs. But Inch was equally as tough, allowing only a Barber single in the fifth and a single to Jim Kenyon.

This time it was Harrison who responded to challenge as the Hawks scored three runs in the fifth inning. Brennan doubled to lead off the frame, Enright walked, and when Murray was safe on an error, Brennan and Enright both scored. John Miller (of football fame), got himself in a rundown that allowed Murray to score and Harrison suddenly found themselves with a 3-1 lead.

Harrison added an insurance run in the sixth on back-to-back triples by Inch and Brennan.

Inch retired the final three batters, including pinch-hitter Simpson, and the Hawks had inched their way toward the district title.

Glenn places 3 on all-Northwest

By Steve A. DeMolay
ANP Special Writer

Three members of the 1985 Westland John Glenn High School varsity baseball club were named this week to the final Northwest Suburban League All-Star team following a meeting of the league coaches.

Senior shortstop Cass Simpson capped his outstanding senior year by being named to the NWSL team. Simpson, who also excelled as a defensive back for Chuck Gordon's football team last fall, led Glenn batters in at-bats (69) and runs scored (28). He batted .406 on the year while swatting three home runs and five triples.

"He has been a real steady player for three years for us," said Coach Norm Hoenes. "He's just a gamer. He has good speed and he's always been a real good hitter."

Pitcher Steve Irwin was one of only two pitchers selected for the first team (Thurston's Chris Kloc was the other). The 6-0 righthander was 6-3 on the

Glenn girls perfect champs

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Westland John Glenn is a "perfect" last Northwest Suburban Conference girls' Track & Field champion.

The league, due to disband after the current school year, held its final competitions last Wednesday at North Farmington and Glenn had little difficulty earning the last crown. The Westlanders amassed 50 points more than its closest rival, North Farmington, which had 104. Livonia Franklin finished third.

"This group of Glenn girls, in my opinion, is the finest team that the high school has ever fielded," said Glenn Coach Ernie Righetti. "These kids had to sacrifice as well. I asked some of them to compete in events that they usually don't because we needed the points. Our depth paid off."

Righetti received an outstanding effort from senior Ann Parish who emerged as a double gold winner. Parish, who signed a letter of intent to attend Eastern Michigan University this fall, was the league champion in the shot put after a toss of 38 feet, 2 inches. She also earned a gold for her 107 feet, 10 inch toss in the discus.

Karen Opp, as versatile an athlete as there is, added three golds to her already long list of athletic accomplishments. Opp picked up a first for her 12.6 in the 100 meters, then was clocked in the winning time for the 220 (26.2) and capped the afternoon with a 59.0 for her league title in the 440. "This young lady can run in just about any event," said Righetti. "And she will be around next year."

Glenn also dominated the 800-meter, 1,600 and 3,200 meter runs thanks to Laura Grazulis. Grazulis, a senior, covered the 800 in 2:28.3 and hit the ribbon first for the 1,600 as she covered the distance in 5:30. She was clocked in 12:10 in winning the 3,200 meters.

Glenn also put together the best 3,200 meter relay team on the strength of Thersea Hatkowiak, Dawn Rowe, Pauline Eldridge and Pam Eldridge, who were clocked in 10:10.3.

The Westlanders also captured the league title in the high jump. Julie Hysko cleared 5 feet, 1 inch to earn the title.

"We picked up 10 of the 15 events," said Righetti, "and that's a pretty nice way of bowing out of this league."

Glenn is scheduled to join the Inter Lakes Conference this fall.

tance races. In fact, we put three runners in the top five in every distance race and the league couldn't respond to that kind of depth."

Righetti added: "I felt we had a championship team at the beginning and these kids proved it. They deserve all the credit in the world."

Glenn's Rockets finished with 139 1/2 points, beating out runner-up, Thurston, which had 89. In the third place slot was North Farmington.

The Westlanders won one field event thanks to Ron Bushaw who soared 11 feet to become the league's pole vault champ.

Righetti put together two line-ups that netted gold medals in the relays. His combination of Kyle Szukaitis, Jim Lakattos, Todd Lilla and Frank Shelly set a league record in winning the 3,200 meter relay

Fordson is next

Way keeps Wayne 'alive'

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

After splitting with Wolverine 'A' Conference rival during the regular season, Coach Jim Chronowski and Wayne Memorial's Zebras will have a rematch with their arch-rivals on Saturday.

And they can thank their sophomore pitching sensation, Ron Way, whose three-hitter blanked Bishop Borgess, 2-0, in the pre-district tournament and set up the "rubber game."

The two conference rivals will play Saturday in the Class A playoffs at Dearborn High. "We split with Fordson," Chronowski said. "They beat us 4-2 in extra innings and we came back to edge them 6-5 the second time around. Obviously, the teams are pretty evenly matched and whoever gets the breaks is going to win."

Way, who has been Chronowski's most effective hurler, appeared unbeatable last week as he humbled Borgess in the qualifying round. He struck out seven and walked five while his counterpart and loser, Chris Tubaro, gave up eight hits, fanned three but walked six.

Tubaro got into trouble in the top of the sixth inning when Gary Scott broke a scoreless tie with an over-the-fence homer that went 325 feet.

Then, in the top of the sixth Wayne added insurance runs as Cameron Mitchell led off with a single and, after Eric Shirley sacrificed, John Eberhardt walked as did Gary Scott, loading the bases. Chris Kaske's bunt produced the second and final run of the game.

"The main story in this game is the way Way shut out an excellent ball club," Chronowski said. "He had men on bases in the second inning and got two strikeouts to get out of trouble, while he also had two aboard in the fourth and managed to pitch himself out of trouble."

Scott had three of the Wayne eight hits, getting two singles to go along with the roundtripper. Mitchell finished the afternoon with two hits, in three appearances.

Wayne will bring the curtains down on the regular season this week as they take on Trenton today at Trenton. They will host Wyandotte tomorrow for the finale.

The Zebras are taking a 5-5 league record into the final week of competition. Leading the league with an 8-2 mark is Lincoln Park which must somehow find a way to get by Monroe, a team breathing down Coach Tom Nolan's neck. The Trojans are 7-3 on the year and will host the final game.

Belleville runs 2nd to Monroe

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

The sophomore Wolverine 'A' Conference has a new Track & Field king. It's Monroe, which dethroned the inaugural champ, Belleville at the league championship last Wednesday. "Monroe had some sensational finishes in the last few events," said Belleville coach Dave Medley, "and that cost us the championship. However, I felt our kids performed well."

The lead see-sawed between the champ and the challenger until the mile where Monroe finished 1-2 to seal the victory. Belleville had taken command after Millyard Thomas won the low hurdles. Thomas was clocked in 38.7. The Tigers also picked up the gold in the high hurdles thanks to two-gold medal winner, Billy Armstrong.

Armstrong claimed the high hurdles in 14.6, and he also won the shot put with a toss of 52 feet, 7 inches.

Belleville's Matt Larcinese continued to shine in the discus as he captured the league title with a toss of 165 feet, 2 inches.

Belleville will travel to Flint Northwestern on Saturday to compete in the state finals. Medley will take a contingent of eight to state.

Tigers winding down 'long season'

The long and disappointing baseball road comes to an end for Belleville High's baseball club this week as Coach Tom Fielder's Tigers hope to wrap up the campaign, weather permitting. They were scheduled to play Trenton Monday in a make-up game.

"We have had some ups-and-downs," Fielder said, "and I feel that this club is better than its record indicates."

Belleville stands 3-7 in the league after losing to Fordson and league-leader, Lincoln Park, last week.

Righthander Keith Barnett was tagged for the 5-2 loss to Fordson after pitching a four-hitter, striking out 11 and walking five. Fordson's Bob Marcon also gave up four hits, and he fanned eight and walked three.

The Tigers got two in the first off of Marcon who yielded a leadoff walk to Rich Campbell then, with two away, Dennis Montie, also walked. That brought up Matt Oddy who greeted Marcon with a double to right centerfield, scoring the two baserunners. Oddy was left stranded on base when Marcon got Steve Else to ground out.

Fordson retaliated in the second with two runs and broke the deadlock in the fourth with two more run, then added an insurance run in the sixth.

On Thursday, Belleville

traveled to Lincoln Park where they clashed with title hopeful, Lincoln Park. Parker coach Tom Nolan, smelling title, wasn't taking chances with the Tigers and threw his ace, Ronald Guriel into the thick of the battle. Guriel whiffed six, walked none en route to an 11-5 victory. He also aided his own cause with three hits.

Loser Bob Tansey gave up nine hits.

Inkster 'forfeits' to Cherry Hill

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

It isn't often a varsity high school baseball team forfeits a game to its opponent.

But that's what happened in the interesting case of Cherry Hill vs. Inkster in the pre-district tournament game.

"They called us the day of the game and announced that they wouldn't be fielding a team because of disciplinary problems," said Cherry Hill Coach Ken Mientkiewicz, "obviously that caught us by surprise."

"So I guess we will be playing in the qualifying round," he added. Cherry Hill was scheduled to meet Detroit Northern to see which team would advance to the Class B district championship scheduled for Dearborn Heights Crestwood. The district tournaments will get underway on Sat., June 1.

In the meantime, Cherry Hill lost a 10-4 lopsided decision to Southgate as the Spartans' defense collapsed. The losers committed five costly errors. Cherry Hill ended the Tri-River Conference campaign with a 6-8 won-lost record.

Southgate got to losing pitcher, Mark Bayliss, for two runs in the opening inning, but the Spartans came back with single tallies in the third and the fourth to tie the score at 2-all. The Sabers, however, broke the knot with a pair of runs in the fourth, added another in the fifth and put it away with a 5-run sixth.

"Bayliss isn't at fault for this one," Mientkiewicz said. "When your defense commits five errors, it's hard to win."

Bayliss pitched a five-hitter, struck out six and walked five while winner, Dave Wagoner, surrendered six hits, three of those to Rob Bryer and two to Paul Oster.

was 16 against Redford Union when he beat them, 4-3.

"He's an overpowering pitcher. He's probably one of the best pitchers ever to wear a Glenn uniform," said Hoenes of his ace who will return next year.

A third member of the team,

Mike Oaks, was voted the outstanding designated hitter. Oaks batted .351 on the season and was on base 34 times (14 walks, 20 hits). He also played third base and it was his three hits that keyed the Rockets' offense in the 7-1 victory over Garden City.

Mike was a pleasant surprise for us," Hoenes said. "I knew he could help us in a variety of ways - third base, DH, and pitcher. He hit the ball really well."

Other Rockets named to the team included Bill Barber (Second Team, first baseman) and Dave Husak (Honorable Mention - catcher).

nation's biggest annual hunts for new modeling talent.

She now becomes eligible for selection later this year as a contest "super" semifinalist, the next step in winning the competition.

This year's Great Model Search winner will appear on the cover of "TEEN" and win a $5,000 modeling contract with the Gillette Company, a 1985 Mazda automobile, a vacation to San Francisco to select an entire Levi Strauss & Co. wardrobe, and a number of other prizes.

"TEEN's" Great Model Search has attracted more than 225,000 entries since its inception in 1981. Many of the past winners and finalists have gone on to sign with major modeling agencies after their involvement with the competition.

The contest is open to teenagers ages 12-18 in the United States and Canada. Entry forms are available in current issues of "TEEN."

"TEEN" is the nation's best-read magazine for young women 12-19.

New Japanese 'Super Pill' Insures Rapid Weight-Loss

No Dieting — Eat All You Want, Pill Does All The Work

BEVERLY HILLS, CA — An exciting new "all natural" weight-loss "Super" Pill developed by the JMA (Japanese Medical Association) has just been approved for distribution in the United States. Reportedly, it can guarantee that you will lose more than a pound a day without dieting, from the very first day until you reach your ideal weight and figure. News of this "Super Pill" is literally sweeping the country. It's called Amitol and there has never been anything quite like it before.

"Flushes Calories Right Out Of Your Body"

What makes Amitol so thrilling and unique is its reported ability to flush calories right out of your body. Amitol is completely safe, it contains no drugs whatsoever. Its ingredients are derived solely from the Konjac root which grows primarily in Northern Japan.

Why the Konjac root? It has been used in Japan for over 1600 years to produce rapid and natural weight-loss!

Japanese studies verify that Konjac root actually prevents fat producing calories from being absorbed into your system. They say it does this by surrounding much of the fats, proteins and carbohydrates you have eaten with a protective viscous coating which is then gently flushed out of your system. And according to Japanese research this produces absolutely amazing results!

And who can disagree! Amitol (although brand new to this country) is already being called by many people, "the most exciting weight-loss breakthrough of the century." In fact, everywhere there are reports of easy and fast weight-loss from formerly overweight people (in all walks of life) who are now slim, trim, and attractive again.

Company Offers Extraordinary Guarantee

You now can purchase Amitol direct from the North American distributor, and it comes with an extraordinary guarantee.

If you place your order now and then follow the simple instructions for a period of 30 days, you must be completely satisfied with the dramatic visible results or just return the empty container and Dyna Labs will immediately send back your entire purchase price. This guarantee applies regardless of your age or current weight level. What could be better than that! It's just that simple. If you've tried to lose weight before and failed you no longer have an excuse. Amitol is available, it's easy and it works without dieting!

$19.95—30 day supply, or $35.95—60 day supply. Order immediately by sending a check or money order to DYNALABS, 270 No. Canon Dr., Ste. 1255 (Dept. U-21) Beverly Hills, CA, 90210. (Enclose your return address). Credit card holders can order by simply dialing toll free: (1-800-367-2400) 24 hrs a day, 7 days a week. Either way your order will be promptly sent. Please don't wait. You really do deserve to be thin.

Area teens earn Congressman's Medals of Merit

What do dedication to the high school band, assisting senior citizens, extensive community involvement, leadership in school and community activities, volunteer work with the elderly and the families of terminally ill persons and involvement in Scout, school and community activities have in common?

They are representative of the work being done by a group of teens, who were recently awarded Congressman William D. Ford's Medal of Merit of Outstanding Youth for 1985.

In all 29 individuals and three youth community service groups from communities in Ford's 15th Congressional District were presented with awards.

"At a time when our nation cries out for young leaders and selfless citizens, I can think of nothing more fitting than to honor young people who have already learned to give of themselves for the good of others," Ford said in presenting the awards. "It's an honor for me to be in a position to recognize their achievements and wish them future success."

In addition to the Medal of Merit winners, Ford also presented Certificates of Achievement to the Corner Health Center Performing Troupe of Ypsilanti, the Belleville High School Ambassador Chorale and the Action Junior Civitan Club of Wayne-Westland.

Western Wayne County recipients of the Medal of Merit included:

--Theresa Davis, 18, of Belleville, the daughter of Mary A. Davis, who was honored for her dedication to the Belleville High School bands. As their student business manager, she has unselfishly devoted time and assistance to the band directors and performers, always with concern for the betterment of the group.

--Scott Allen Adkins, 17, of Huron Township, the son of Franklin and Nora Adkins, who was honored for his involvement and leadership in community and school activities. Adkins is president of the National Honor Society at Huron High School and as member of the student technician's team has worked extensively on the running of lights, sound and stage equipment for several high school and community activities. As a member of the Waltz Improvement Association, he has helped with the Annual Waltz Lighting Ceremony, its decorating and removal, and will direct the Waltz Homecoming Parade this year.

--Sandra Barr, 17, of Romulus, the daughter of Len and Kathleen Barr, who was honored for her outstanding leadership and involvement in student government work and student activities. She was a member of Operation Can Do, sponsored by Elias Brothers Restaurants, Conservation Club president, homecoming queen and the March of Dimes chairperson for 1985.

--Virgie Bright, 17, of Sumpster Township, the daughter of Earl and Esther Bright, who was honored for her volunteer efforts to aid the elderly and families of the terminally ill. She also is interested in local government, helping on both primary and general elections to organize collection of absentee ballots from convalescent homes, canvassing neighborhoods and manning telephone banks. She has volunteered to answer telephones for the Channel 56 telethon and was president of the Ypsilanti Junior Daughters of the Elks.

--Diane Bechel, 21, of Van Buren Township, the daughter of John and Barbara Bechel, who was honored for her community service and campus activities at Eastern Michigan University. She founded and coordinated Resources for Equity and Action for Consumers and Tenants (REACT), a community service organization. She has been involved in programs dealing with landlord-tenant problems, student defenders, sexual harassment and the Student Resource Center programs, where students help other students.

--Kevin Carnahan, 21, of Van Buren Township, the son of Shirley Carnahan, who was honored for his service as a volunteer at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, his involvement in his community, his activities at Central Michigan University and his participation in local political campaigns. He also has exhibited a great desire to be involved in public affairs and has organized such events as Alcohol Awareness Week, "Armageddon--What Does It Involve for Mankind?" and the Winter Resident Assistant Orientation Program at CMU.

--Dawn Marie Twydel, 18, of Van Buren Township, the daughter of Kenneth and Patricia Twydel, who was honored for her commitment to community involvement. She has been involved in collection and funding drives for the Van Buren Convalescent Center, Beyer Memorial Hospital, Wayne Convalescent Center, University of Michigan Motts Children's Hospital, the Statue of Liberty and the Easter Seal Telethon. She also has worked to establish a wildlife area in her community and other environmental projects.

Also a Certificate of Achievement recipient, the Belleville High School Ambassador Chorale managed to remain active during the recent recession, when many musical programs at area high schools were being cut back or eliminated, through the dedication of the director and students and their desire to go on.

The group is comprised of 16 hard-working and talented young men and women, who perform extensively and act as goodwill ambassadors for Belleville High School and the youth of their community.

They are an important part of Belleville High School aside from their concert and ensemble performances. They perform in regular community parades and float competitions and provide stage crew and technical expertise in the high school auditorium. They decorate the music hall during Christmas, assist with the set up and crowd control during Homecoming festivities and provide leadership and exemplary citizenship for all students to observe on a day-to-day basis.

Employees honored

Judith A. Fedchenko was one of three Belleville residents among the 196 Catherine McAuley Health Center employees honored May 9 at the Employee Service Recognition Banquet.

Fedchenko first worked at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital when she was a pharmacology student at the University of Michigan. Upon graduation, she applied for a pharmacist's position and was hired.

But she never stopped being a student.

"When you get into the hospital field, you don't stop learning," said Fedchenko who is pursuing a master's degree in hospital pharmacy administration at Wayne State University.

Her husband, Robert, is a dentist in Ann Arbor.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital is a unit of Catherine McAuley Health Center.

HOW DO CAVITIES FORM?

Cavities are caused by the bacteria contained in plaque, a sticky film that forms around the tooth. These bacteria use carbohydrates—sugars and starches—produce an acid that attacks the tooth enamel.

After repeated acid attacks (beginning about 20 minutes after every meal or snack), the tooth's enamel is finally broken down... and the cavity begins.

Continued acid attacks eventually eat through the enamel and into the dentin, a softer inner layer where decay can spread rapidly throughout the tooth's structure.

If the decay remains unchecked, it can reach through the dentin to the pulp, which contains the nerve.

The tooth can then become painful... and there's a risk of abscess, or infection, at the root tip.

1946/Detroit' provides a musical dessert on stage

By RUSS OGDEN
ANP Special Writer

A musical dessert is in the offing at Tremonti's near Greek town (440 Clinton Street) as a unique threesome with magnificent, powerful voices celebrate Circa 1946 in "1946/Detroit." Handsomely-bearded Phil Marcus Esser in fine physical, musical form serves as the King of this triumphant revue of songs of the late 40's, and even Marcus is sometimes pleasantly outshone by a strong and sensitive voice of Barbara Bredius and a uniquely pixilated voice pleasantly projected by petite Sheri Nichols.

In a small bistro setting (100 people or less), three costumed "in 40's regala" personalities become a part of a radio program originating from WWJ in Detroit with guests for the evening sitting in a "memory studio" listening to pleasantly ambulated melodies concoted tunelessly by three absolutely wonderfully multi-talented people. Thus the radio broadcast begins and we hear a running commentary of happenings in Detroit with songs of 1946.

Esser's best music of the evening in solo fashion is "Prisoner of Love." If hands would only last long enough to give him the applause that he truly deserves for his strong, baritone voice that often could knock the walls out of the intimate bistro . . . no amplification needed. Esser's clearly understandable lyrics, as is true with the rest of the cast's vocalizations, are truly nice to hear after being lambasted with shouting, non-verbal grunts of some music of today.

Bredius' exquisitely engaging eyes and her beautifully coiffed hair surrounding a most attractive face does not prepare us for the strength and professional presentation of her biggest show stopper of the evening: "There's No Business Like Show Business." The late Ethel Merman just had to be smiling with the brilliance and showmanship of this number.

Comedic, chameleonlike personality Nichols adapts to "loudness and softness" in her presentations which includes "South America, Take It Away" and her support for multi-musical numbers presented during the evening.

A fantastic video should be made of Bredius and Nichols as they sing and act their way to wonderful bedlam in a comic presentation of "Cocktails for Two;" the interplay here between these two troopers is unbelievable and many a guy busting comes from their short vignette alone.

Bredius, Esser, and Nichols combine into a trio of fluffy nostalgia for many songs reminding us of the Modernaires of Glenn Miller fame. From the introductory setting for Happy New Year and happily bumbling along to a too quick ending, the talent on stage never waivers from excellence and (in New York, at least) would go open end for several years.

We should not forget Esser's musical tribute to "Racing with the Moon" . . . and again, Vaughn Monroe of the 40's and directing scene would also have cheered Esser's musical acuity with his warm rendition.

For the unfamiliar younger person the evening should be quite exciting to hear tunes as they were presented in 1946 with a cast of three outstanding personalities and singers. For those of us who were in the 40's mix, it is a tear jerking, emotional evening of happy listening satisfaction. Songs heard during the evening include: "Tuxedo Junction," "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy," "In the Mood," "Juke Box Saturday Night," "What's New," "Happiness is Just a Thing Called Joe," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and many other 1946 Hit Parade Favorites.

Concern about crowds and parking were primary factors in approaching Detroit for the evening of the revue. Radio stations were blasting the lack of parking space and the huge crowds in Detroit. However, we pulled up at 440 Clinton street—a couple of blocks from Greek town and the opening of Trapper's Alley—and were politely parked by a Larry Douglas who almost apologized for taking a $1 parking fee . . . with the parking being right next to Tremonti's.

Entering Tremonti's . . . not more than 20 steps from the parking lot . . . we were greeted with true Southern Comfort charm hostess Donna. Again the courtesy show by this young lady deserves to be bottled for some of the not so well-mannered hostesses in the Detroit area. If only this wonderful feeling had overflowed into Tremonti's Bistro.

Featured in the theatre package for $18.95 is either New York Center Cut Steak (16 oz.) broiled or Filet of Sole with Shrimp and Mushroom Stuffing OR Veal Parmigian made with fresh veal top. The salad had been prepared some time prior to our entry and was wilted. The baked potato (featured on all dinners) with sour cream or drawn butter and the winter mix vegetables were satisfactory. Desserts are available as well as drinks. One would not return to Tremonti's Bistro for the meal alone without the superb evening of Esser & Company.

"1946/Detroit" plays an 8:30 p.m. dinner show and an 11 p.m. late show Fridays and Saturdays through June 29 at Tremonti's (formerly Mr. Tee's) 440 Clinton Street. Clinton is between Brush and Beaubien near Greektown. Call 1-963-1225 from 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

MOTHER IS HARASSED IN HOSPITAL - DAUGHTER PLEADS HER CASE.

Dear Letter Writer:

My mother was very sick and was in the hospital. For a while, it was touch and go. She was treated so badly by the Patient Care Coordinator that I want to write a letter to the hospital administration

Sincerely, JD

Dear Hospital Board of Directors:

After much thought and soul searching, I have decided, as a first step toward resolution of this matter, to write you a letter. I am one of the 12 children of ML. On Dec. 12, 1984, my mother, ML, was admitted to your hospital to receive care for asthma and pneumonia. Needless to say, my mother was very ill and in a life-threatening condition. The entire period of her stay was wrought with unfair, undue and arbitrary harassment by the nursing staff at the hospital and, most especially, by RF, the Patient Care Coordinator. The specific discrimination that took place, is as follows:

RF, without cause, changed the normal visiting hours, as they related to my mother, in some instances to no visitors allowed at all and in others to greatly shortened hours. This action was instituted on RF's part and was an override of the doctor's written orders. In short, my mother was allowed, but not granted, "Normal" visiting hours, although she was in a private room. When RF was in my mother's room, he was rude, inconsiderate and disruptive to my mother, our family and other visitors. From day one of her visit, my mother began to develop an increasingly depressed mental state as a direct result of RF's unconscionable behavior. At the time of her discharge from the hospital, my mother's emotional state was at a low that she had never experienced before.

During the night shift, the nursing staff administered my mother breathing treatments irregularly and late. The nursing staff, in general were neglectful, did not answer her patient bell timely, refused or delayed requests for water, ice, etc., and, overall, treated her as a bother and not as a patient deserving and warranting the care they are trained to give. On several occasions, when a member of my family called to inquire as to my mother's condition, the nurses replied with incomplete truths. In an attempt to reconcile these events, my father and I made an appointment and spoke to the head nurse. She was sympathetic and assured us that visiting hours would be restored. In addition, she agreed to honor our request that RF be kept from entering my mother's room. Despite her seeming desire to help, nothing changed. We, of course, related our concerns regarding the above on a regular basis to our doctor. As a last resort, the doctor indicated to us that my mother was not healing properly due to the constant emotional upset she was experiencing, and, therefore, should be transferred to another hospital. After discussing this with my mother, she decided that she would accept a transfer. That evening, I arrived in my mother's room to visit and found my mother lying in bed crying and my father sitting in a chair with a packed suitcase. They were both obviously distraught. Subsequently, RF entered the room and cause a commotion. An unnecessary and upsetting confrontation ensued

On another occasion, due to the tension and dissention prevailing, my father had a Meniere's attack and needed help. My mother was unable to get a nurse's attention by using her patient button and had to place a telephone call to the nurse's station to secure emergency treatment for my father. Please accept this letter as a formal request to initiate an investigation into the behavior of RF. It is our opinion that he was derelict in his duties, both on a professional and personal level. It is our prayer that other patients do not ever have to go through what our mother has.

Sincerely, J.D.

RESOLUTION: At last word, approximately February, 1985, the hospital had sent JD a letter of apology. Not satisfied with this, JD was going to file a complaint with the proper agency in Lansing.

Entertaining

The September Days Senior Band, lead by Ruth Pollard, recently provided the entertainment for a gathering of mothers and daughters of the Belleville Moose Lodge.

Their own brand of music followed a dinner at the lodge.

Grant awarded

Wayne County Executive William Lucas has announced that the Department of Health and Community Services has won a $75,000 grant to assist in the battle to aid abused and neglected children.

Lucas said: "One of the responsibilities of the government should be to protect the defenseless, as with our Infant Mortality program, the beneficiaries are truly helpless victims, anything we can do to curtail this appalling problem is most worthwhile.

Under the grant, the Department of Social Services will refer these children and their families to Health Department sites at the South Health Center, 21202 Eureka Road, Taylor (287-2400); Inkster Clinic, 3505 Walnut, Inkster (563-1133); and Sumpter Clinic, 2401 Sumpter Road, Sumpter Township (461-6711).

At these clinics, those referred will be assessed by health professionals including doctors, nurses, nutritionists and social workers. Recommendations will be made to the Department relative to the various types of treatment that these individuals should receive.

New businesses are popping up faster than flowers along the Wayne Road corridor in Westland these days. Tony's Discount Auto Parts has opened in the former Olson Electronics building, just north of Cherry Hill Road. Just across the street, a three-store mini-strip is under fast and furious construction.

Further up the road, Westland Crossing Shopping Center, which will be anchored by Toys-R-Us and Marshalls, has broken ground at the site of the Algiers Drive-In.

And yet further north, Woodcrest Plaza and adjacent mall are under construction. The Woodcrest Plaza, which will feature 15 stores, is nearly completed. Opening just last week were Movies-R-Us and Chantilly Lace (blush, blush).

Speaking of flowers... Pinter's Flowerland and Greenhouse of Belleville is blooming all over. This family-owned business, which was started over 50 years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinter, Sr., has grown to include locations in six neighboring communities: Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Royal Oak, Southfield, Redford and Canton. Each store is managed by a member of the Pinter family. The key to their success says Harry Pinter, Sr., "We give our flowers and plants the love and care we have shown in our family." Must be something to it!

Thanks to the Wayne/Westland School District, Fellows Creek Golf Course will soon become a 27-hole gold course. Recreation Supervisor Mike Gouin at Fellows Creek is excited about getting the additional nine holes underway this summer. The property had previously been owned by the school district, which had been sold to Canton Township which in turn sold it to Fellows Creek.

Canton Cinema 6, the area's newest six-screen theatre complex is now open. The top hits that made it to the screens this week were: First Blood Part II, A View to a Kill, Code of Silence and Brewster's Millions. Among these top names is also Tim Jahn, manager of the complex, who's hard work these past few months was proven a success, and his generosity overwhelming. (Ask the couple who won the trip to Las Vegas).

Daisies Don't Tell Resale Shop on Canton Center Road in Canton has a new owner, Peggy Hoag. Peggy lives in Northville, but is excited about moving to Canton this summer. Welcome and good luck, Peggy!

A special thanks goes out to all the Romulus area businesses that helped make our Sesquicentennial Time Capsule Edition and Michigan Week Festival Publication a reality with their advertising support. The residents were thoroughly informed and the turn out was great. Thanks again!

YMCA receives $7,500 donation

Unistrut-GTE, a major business in the Wayne-Westland area for many years, showed its true colors again this week by making a $7,500 gift to the Wayne-Westland Family YMCA Capital Campaign, according to John Ryan, general chairman for the campaign. "There is, also, hope that further support would be forth coming within the five-year subscription period for the campaign," Ryan added. "Unistrut-GTE has always been a very positive force in this area as a large business operation and as a true friend of the community."

C. J. Malfese, President of Unistrut described the gift as a "measure of our strong commitment to maintaining the vitality of the Wayne-Westland area by strengthening one of its most popular social agencies, the YMCA. Many of our employees are members of the YMCA and therefore the gift will mean added benefits to our employees."

The campaign, which is designed to raise funds necessary to construct a family activity center, whirlpool and sauna, has reached the half-way mark in its efforts to achieve a goal of $200,000.

"Gifts from area businesses and corporations are necessary to obtain the required funds," Ryan said, who added that the Unistrut-GTE gift would hopefully "set a precedent for further gift support from the business community."

Bank has record earnings

Wayne Bank has achieved record operating earnings for the first quarter of 1985, reported Raymond A. Reame, president of WB Financial Corp., the parent company of the bank.

The bank posted earnings of $240,000 or $3.16 per share, the second best quarter in net earnings in the bank's history.

Reame also announced the appointment of Charles J. McDonald as vice president and operations officer of Wayne Bank. McDonald served most recently as president of the Peoples State Bank in Williamston, Michigan.

Summer jobs available for teens

The Summer Youth Employment and Training Program, sponsored by the Wayne County Private Industry Corporation and administered by the Wayne County Intermediate School District, is providing 100 summer jobs for youths.

The summer youth program will run for eight weeks beginning June 17 and ending Aug. 9.

The program aims to seek out youth ages 16 to 21, who are unemployed, and who can qualify as economically disadvantaged under federal guidelines. Applicants must also be residents of Wayne County (excluding Detroit and downriver communities which have their own programs).

Once identified, these program participants will be assigned to work as clerical, maintenance, custodial and recreational aides within the Wayne-Westland area. Each will work at least a 32-hour week at the hourly rate of $3.35.

In addition to supplementing their family income, program participants have the opportunity to develop and practice good work habits and to acquire some limited, but specific job skills.

To apply for the Wayne-Westland Summer Youth Employment and Training Program, contact the program manager, Gary Makowski, who can be reached in person at the Co-op Office of John Glenn High School or by calling at 595-2311.
